Motto

انا عندظن عبدي بي

“I am as My servant thinks I am.” –Hadith Qudsi

"الجيّات احسن من الراجيات"

“What is coming is better than what is gone.” –Arabic Proverb

“Hidup dan nasib, bisa tampak berantakan, misterius, fantastis, dan sporadis, namun dari setiap elemennya adalah subsistem keteraturan dari sebuah desain holistik yang sempurna. Menerima kehidupan berarti menerima kenyataan bahwa tak ada hal sekecil apapun terjadi karena kebetulan. Ini fakta penciptaan yang tak terbantahkan.”

Acknowledgement

Nothing is more impressive and memorable than writing this skripsi. In order to finish it, 662 miles away had been crossed; air, land, and sea transportation had been exhausted, and even the flood had been solved. Therefore, no one deserves huge thanks the most, but Almighty Allah! I know that “أنا عند ظنّ عبدي بي” actually worked.

There are so many people to thank for helping me out during the last year and have made my stay in Yogyakarta a lot easier. Firstly, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my eternal superpowers, my parents – Muhammad Nur Yasin and Maryam Yusuf– for always blessing and loving me since before I was born until now. I also thank to my lifetime buddies; my siblings –Diyan Barokah Songbatumis, Iman Purnama Songbatumis, and Muhammad Quddus Songbatumis– for always having my back. Me lako ku lalo, so lako ku uba sia dalam ate.

Special thanks belong to my supervisor, Mr. Gendroyono, S.Pd., M.Pd. who has guided and enlightened me in accomplishing the skripsi. Thanks to my beloved examiners, Ms. Arifah Mardiningrum, S.Pd., M.A. and Mrs. Eko Purwanti, Ph.D. for their insight, sincere and valuable suggestions and encouragement extended to me to finish this writing. After all, my sincere appreciation to all teachers and lecturers of English Education Department of Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta for opening a mind and a heart, transferring beneficial knowledge, giving meaningful experiences, and sharing inspirational motivation. “To the world, you may be just a teacher but to your students, you are the real hero.” The important thanks also belong to all the staffs of English Language Faculty, particularly to Pak Wiji and Pak Rahmad for being helpful and ‘deadline reminder’.

I place my big thanks to MTsN Taliwang for being very helpful as well as to all participants who have spent their precious time, given me valuable information, and contributed so much in this skripsi. In addition, I am very thankful to my neighbours and my kanti-kanti at hometown, this study would not been possible without their help and support extended to me. Makasih peno-peno. The last thanks belongs to the friend I never meet in person –Saqib Gul– for always giving me jazba and becoming my language checker. Shukriya! To all buddies of class A EED UMY batch 2013, thank you for filling up these three years more with life lesson, companion, and friendship. xo.

I sincerely hope that may Almighty Allah bless and reward all of them abundantly. Aamiin.
