Introduction

Most of Muslim countries are in crisis. Middle East countries such as Syria are struggling to overcome multi crisis from internal conflict to religious radicalism, leadership crisis, social, economic, and politics. Meanwhile, Muslim in Asia such as Indonesia although it is relatively safe and life in peace, ethics and moral crisis seem to be serious problem to this country. Referring to this multi crisis in the Muslim world, reevaluation to the ideal Islamic values is in need to be contextualized in real life. The primary objective of this conference is to explore causes and alternative solutions of human crisis from Islamic values perspective and also multi-dimensional discipline approaches. Meanwhile, the secondary objective are (1) as a place to discuss and sharing ideas among academics and practitioners, and (2) as a place to establish scientific networking among practitioners and academics and also other international institutions.

In seeking to achieve these objectives we implemented an intensive participation of the audience both in plenary and parallel sessions. We are very grateful to have a range of high caliber key note speakers. Therefore, we would like to express our gratitude to:

1. Prof. Dr. Jasser Auda
Chairman of Maqashid Institute, London
2. Prof. Dato Sri Dr. Asiah Abdul Rahim
Kulliyyah of Architecture and Environmental Design (KAED)
International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM)
3. Prof. Dr. Mat Rofa Ismail
Fakulti Sains, Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM)
4. Dr. Ahmad Arifin bin Sapar
University of Malaya, Malaysia
5. Dr. Ali Abdul Mun'im
Researcher in Islamic Development Policies, Maqasid Institute Coordinator in Indonesia
6. Dr. Ahmad Muhammad Diponegoro
Universitas Ahmad Dahlan, Indonesia

That our conference was successful in achieving all of the objectives which was set out for it is borne out in this report of the proceedings and outcomes. This proceeding consists of various topics and discussions on how to offer some solutions on human crisis through the Islamic values. The topics of the proceeding are multiple and cannot be concluded into one single point of view.
